– The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address –
Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 5/3/2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant argued that the examiner has not established a prima facie case of obviousness; the examiner has not provided proper motivation for combining the reference. The argument is not persuasive because the rejection specifically pointed out the motivation - Stefik's abstract which points out the advantage of controlling the distributing of digital works. Although Stefik does not specifically disclose in the patent 6,236,971 that digital works includes a computer program (e.g. invokable software object). However, computer program is a digital work-product created by an entity and can be sold or lease to other entities; hence it is obvious that a computer program is an instance of a 'digital work'. Chang is used merely to shown that it is known in the art to provide programs in object forms and to lease computer resources. Given the teaching of Stefik, it would have been obvious for one of ordinary skill in the art to apply Stefik teaching to control distribution of any type of digital works - including computer programs (i.e. invokable software objects).

Conclusion

Claims 1-44 are rejected as stated in the prior office action (paper #15).

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
